

Get the Story Straight

 track 35

Copy sheet 17

- Read and/or listen to the story.
- Close your Topic Book and arrange the sentences to put the story in the right order.

- ☐ He was about 50 years old and wore expensive clothes and soft leather slippers.
- ☐ But there was no cab in sight so she stepped out of the doorway and began walking.
- ☐ "Take out one of your other girls", she said to him.
- ☐ Angela was late coming home from work and she had to hurry to meet her friend.
- ☐ When they reached her house they saw Gil's car parked in front of it.
- ☐ A tall man with long, dangling arms was moving towards her.
- ☐ Not far from her the old man put his hands in his pockets and caressed a noose of wire.
- ☐ Another man came limping around the corner and she crashed into him.
- ☐ The man told Angela she was too beautiful to walk the streets alone and offered to walk her home.
- ☐ Gil and Angela had a fight and she told him to drive off.
- ☐ She wanted to take a cab because it was risky to move in the neighbourhood.
- ☐ Angela thanked the man for taking her home.
- ☐ She was a bit nervous, as two young girls had recently been strangled nearby.